

CECIL TOWNSHIP BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
SPECIAL MEETING
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2015
7:00 PM

The Cecil Township Board of Supervisors held a special meeting on Thursday, February 26, 2015, in the Cecil Township Municipal Building with six (6) residents in attendance. The meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by Chairman Tom Casciola. Board members present were Supervisors Casciola, Schrader, Cowden, and Johnson. Noted as absent was Supervisor Fisher. Also present were Township Manager Donald A. Gennuso, Director of Public Works Bill Bottorff, and Engineer Joe Sites of Gateway Engineers.

ADMINISTRATIVE ITEMS:

The Board discussed the proposed 2015 Pavement Maintenance Program that was previously submitted to them through a January 29, 2015 e-mail from Gateway Engineers. The information was a summary of the proposed roads with the associated opinion of cost.

Engineer Joe Sites recapped the list and requested authorization to proceed and put the program out to bid through two (2) contracts: (1) Contract A (Monaco Plan) through Liquid Fuels (2) Contract B (Other Roads) through General Fund.

There was discussion regarding three specific areas: the bad turn at the intersection of Klinger and McConnell Roads, also Fawn Lane at Klinger Road where the road is not in line with the property line on either side, and the sharp bend (next to the horse farm) on Klinger Road. Chairman Casciola read Section 2312 from the Second Class Township Code, noting the township's right to acquire property through a variety of means to eliminate dangerous conditions on township roads.

Engineer Joe Sites recapped the six (6) options, that were disseminated through an e-mail this date, regarding work on King Road from Profio Road to Reissing Road. There was discussion regarding the (6) options, completion of the waterline work and laterals, recommendation of under drains, and traffic on King Road.

NO ACTION WAS TAKEN ON ANY ITEM.

ADJOURNMENT:

Declaring that there was no further business before the Board, the meeting was adjourned by Chairman Casciola at 7:48 pm.
